EXECUTIVE SYNOPSIS

DOSSIER NOTES

In preparing this background report, we undertook an examination of all readily available and relevant electronic and online records, several hundred Nexis and news articles, dozens of active and archived web pages, and several dozen public records from Nexis and the resources of various federal, state, and municipal government offices. The results of our analysis are contained below.

Typographical Note: There are a number of articles quoted in this report that contain typographical errors. These are from the original text of the article and have not been corrected when being quoted directly.

MAIN VULNERABILITIES

Political Missteps

While still a political newcomer, Valerie Jordan has already committed several mistakes which may hinder her electoral ambitions.

Potentially most damning, Jordan may be accused of carpetbagging. Jordan only registered in Warren County in December 2020. Prior to Warren County, Jordan was registered in Wake County between 1998 and 2020. To that effect, Jordan registered to vote at 137 Red Oak Lane, Warrenton, North Carolina, a property which has been owned by her parent, Percy Alson, since August 1989. Jordan's current primary residence is listed in the confines of North Carolina State Senate District 3, while her property in Wake County lies within the confines of State Senate District 15. Additionally, Jordan listed her property in Wake County when she made a political contribution was recently as 2021. It should also be noted that Jordan owns four properties in Warren County – most of which are land parcels – and lists her address in Wake County as the mailing address for each of the Warren County properties.

Further, Jordan's claims about her voter registration and voting history may be questioned. Jordan, who was born in September 1969, claims to have registered to vote when she was 17-years-old; however, according to the North Carolina State Board of Elections, Jordan did not register to vote until February 1988, when she would have been 18 years-old. Additionally, in October 2020, Jordan claimed to have never missed an election, and yet, Jordan failed to vote in the 2000 primary election. It should also be noted that she failed to vote in the 2021 municipal election; however, that election was after she had made the statement.

Moreover, Jordan may receive criticism for incorrectly filing her Statement of Economic Interests. On her 2022 statement, Jordan declared she held no fiduciary positions; however, according to the North Carolina Secretary of State, Jordan currently serves as the registered agent and manager of four North Carolina-domiciled organizations.

Support For The Far-Left's Radical Politics

A review of Jordan's public commentary and social media activity has further unearthed her support for the aspects of the far-left's political agenda and liberal politicians.

Jordan has several ties to the Democrat establishment and leading progressive politicians. Jordan is a vocal supporter of Democrat Gov. Roy Cooper and has been an appointee of his to key government boards. Jordan appears to support and have ties to several additional progressive politicians, including Elizabeth Warren and Deborah Ross.

On social media, Jordan has promoted partisan, anti-Republican views. In one instance, Jordan has promoted content that describes Governor Pat McCrory, Speaker Tim Moore, Speaker Pro Tempore Paul Stam, Senator Tom Apodaca, and Representative Dan Bishop as "bigots". Additionally, Jordan shared a post on Facebook that appears to be attempting to describe Trump supporters as racists.

Perhaps most notably, Jordan has used social media to engage in divisive racial politics. On social media, Jordan has expressed support for Black Lives Matter and national anthem protests. In one instance, Jordan shared a post on Facebook that appears to portray Americans as disinterested in the deaths of "unarmed black men" and instead interested in Collin Kaepernick's national anthem protest.

TOP HITS

Financial

Small Claims

- In August 2017, Valerie Jordan filed a small claims complaint against Brittany Alston, demanding $2,910.
  - In August 2017, Jordan received default judgment of $2,780.

Legal

Child Support Lawsuit

- In September 1990, the state of North Carolina on behalf of Jordan filed a complaint against Wallace Harrison to establish paternity and seek child support payments.
  - In February 1991, Harrison agreed to pay $58 per week to Jordan for child support, as well as a lump sum of $783.50 to Warren County.
  - Between 1991 and 2002, Harrison's bi-weekly payments increase three times.
  - In July 2004, the payments were discontinued after Jordan and Harrison's daughter turned 18-years-old.

Political

Voter Registration And History

LEGAL ISSUES

Only one legal issue of note could be found for Valerie Jordan. In September 1990, the state of North Carolina on behalf of Jordan filed a complaint against Wallace Harrison to establish paternity and seek child support payments. In February 1991, Harrison agreed to pay $58 per week to Jordan for child support, as well as a lump sum of $783.50 to Warren County. Between 1991 and 2002, Harrison's bi-weekly payments increase three times. In July 2004, the payments were discontinued after Jordan and Harrison's daughter turned 18-years-old.

VALARIE D JORDAN

Plaintiff,

vs.

WALLACE J HARRISON

Defendant.

ORDER

THIS MATTER came on for hearing and was heard by the undersigned Judge presiding over the District Court of WARREN County, North Carolina on September 10, 1999 upon Plaintiff's Petition for:

Other: MOTION TO CHANGE VENUE OF PRESENT ORDER TO WAKE COUNTY

Based Upon The Evidence The Court Finds As Fact:

1. This matter and these parties are properly before this court.
2. Present in Court for this hearing were:
VALARIE D JORDAN
WALLACE J HARRISON
3. The Child Support Agency was represented by Marvin P. Hooker, P.O. Box 178, Waverly, N.C.
4. Obligor is a citizen and resident of VIRGINIA.
5. Obligor is presently under an order of the Court dated the 6th day of February 1991, requiring Obligor to pay the sum of $58.00 per week for the support of his/her minor child/children.
6. WALLACE J HARRISON is employed by RICHMOND SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT and has a gross income of $157.63 per Bi-week.
7. All actions to establish or enforce a duty of support shall be brought in the name of the County on behalf of the public assistance recipient or non-recipient client.

THE PLAINTIFF, VALARIE JORDAN REQUESTS A CHANGE OF VENUE OF THE CURRENT CHILD SUPPORT ORDER TO WAKE COUNTY.

8. That when the Obligor's income has been verified by the agency, this order can be enforced by immediate income withholding without further notice to the Obligor since the Obligor has waived advance notice to implementing income withholding under the terms of this order.

JORDAN'S POLITICAL MISSTEPS

While still a political newcomer, Valerie Jordan has already committed several mistakes which may hinder her electoral ambitions.

Potentially most damning, Jordan may be accused of carpetbagging. Jordan only registered in Warren County in December 2020. Prior to Warren County, Jordan was registered in Wake County between 1998 and 2020. To that effect, Jordan registered to vote at 137 Red Oak Lane, Warrenton, North Carolina, a property which has been owned by her parent, Percy Alson, since August 1989. Jordan's current primary residence is listed in the confines of North Carolina State Senate District 3, while her property in Wake County lies within the confines of State Senate District 15. Additionally, Jordan listed her property in Wake County when she made a political contribution as recently as 2021. It should also be noted that Jordan owns four properties in Warren County – most of which are land parcels – and lists her address in Wake County as the mailing address for each of the Warren County properties.

Further, Jordan's claims about her voter registration and voting history may be questioned. Jordan, who was born in September 1969, claims to have registered to vote when she was 17-years-old; however, according to the North Carolina State Board of Elections, Jordan did not register to vote until February 1988, when she would have been 18 years-old. Additionally, in October 2020, Jordan claimed to have never missed an election, and yet, Jordan failed to vote in the 2000 primary election. It should also be noted that she failed to vote in the 2021 municipal election; however, that election was after she had made the statement.

Moreover, Jordan may receive criticism for incorrectly filing her Statement of Economic Interests. On her 2022 statement, Jordan declared she held no fiduciary positions; however, according to the North Carolina Secretary of State, Jordan currently serves as the registered agent and manager of four North Carolina-domiciled organizations.

JORDAN'S VOTER REGISTRATION AND VOTING HISTORY CLAIMS MAY BE DISPUTED

In October 2020, Jordan Claimed She Registered To Vote At Age 17 And Has Never Missed At An Election

In October 2020, Jordan Claimed She Registered To Vote At Age 17 And Has Never Missed At An Election. "Because of her town's unique history and family's participation in grassroots organizations, Jordan has always felt a duty to do what she can to improve conditions for rural communities. It means taking elections seriously. "I registered to vote at the age of 17 and I have never missed an election, OK? Because that was so important to my family, of the right to vote," she said." ## JORDAN'S SUPPORT FOR THE FAR-LEFT'S RADICAL POLITICS

A review of Jordan's public commentary and social media activity has further unearthed her support for the aspects of the far-left's political agenda and liberal politicians.

Jordan has several ties to the Democrat establishment and leading progressive politicians. Jordan is a vocal supporter of Democrat Gov. Roy Cooper and has been an appointee of his to key government boards. Jordan appears to support and have ties to several additional progressive politicians, including Elizabeth Warren and Deborah Ross.

On social media, Jordan has promoted partisan, anti-Republican views. In one instance, Jordan has promoted content that describes Governor Pat McCrory, Speaker Tim Moore, Speaker Pro Tempore Paul Stam, Senator Tom Apodaca, and Representative Dan Bishop as "bigots". Additionally, Jordan shared a post on Facebook that appears to be attempting to describe Trump supporters as racists.

Perhaps most notably, Jordan has used social media to engage in divisive racial politics. On social media, Jordan has expressed support for Black Lives Matter and national anthem protests. In one instance, Jordan shared a post on Facebook that appears to portray Americans as disinterested in the deaths of "unarmed black men" and instead interested in Collin Kaepernick's national anthem protest.

This weekend the city of Austin held the Women's March and Rallies. I was the only African-American speaker at the 45th Texas Roe vs Wade Rally.

I used this platform to talk about my nonprofit, Flo Code, discuss issues with homeless women in the Austin community, and how I'm choosing to make a difference. As nervous as I was before giving my speech, I felt a great deal of love and support from the audience. So many women came up to me sharing their stories.

THIS is the epitome of me fulfilling my purpose.

POLITICALDemocratic AssociationsRoy Cooper

In 2020, Jordan Noted She “Wants To Elect Leaders Who Will Have People's Best Interests At Heart, Such As Incumbent Gov. Roy Cooper.” “To Jordan, one of 2 million North Carolinians who have already voted either by mail or in-person since early voting began Oct. 15, those issues are connected. She wants to elect leaders who will have people's best interests at heart, such as incumbent Gov. Roy Cooper. "He has the most diverse cabinet in history, and he is a Rocky Mount native, so he understands all of the rural areas," she said, citing a broadband initiative to increase internet access to underserved communities, a matter of growing importance as most children are learning remotely due to COVID-19. In one of the most historic and unique presidential elections, Black North Carolinians are propelled to vote by the urgency of issues directly affecting them, their communities, and the nation.” (The Charlotte Post, 10/29/20)
